

TEADA'S COOKIE CUTTER KIT CHECK LIST

We have 3 resource kits available for borrowing through the

ANED Resource Library, 556 Boleskine Road

Call 250-475-4131 or 250-475-4124

This box contains the following materials:

6 Cookie cutter shapes

Eagle—Is a symbol of power

Feather—is the symbol of peace and friendship

Kiler Whale— symbolizes long life

Coyote or wolf—represents family and togetherness

Bear—represents strength and power

Salmon— is the giver of life

The West Coast Native images are more than symbols of animals; they have their own traits and history, and are very important to First Nations people of Canada.

SIGNOUT CARD ON BOTTOM

PLEASE CHECK THAT ALL ITEMS ARE ENCLOSED WHEN RETURNING