

HEMASAKA ABORIGINAL NATIONS SCHOLARSHIPS

DONOR: Hemasaka is the traditional name of retired ANED teacher Victor Newman. In the Kwakwala language, Hemasaka means “makings of a chief.” Carey Newman sponsors these scholarships to honour the many years of teaching that his father has given to him, his sisters and generations of students in the Greater Victoria School District. He and his family hope that the recipients of these scholarships will continue on with their educations and go on to become leaders on whatever path they choose.

NUMBER: There are two individual scholarships - the “Kesu” Scholarship for leadership and academics and the “Hayalthkin” Scholarship for arts and culture.

VALUE: $500 each

TENURE: Any full-time program at UVic, UBC, SFU, BCIT, Camosun College or any other recognized post-secondary education or training centre.

CRITERIA:

1. Aboriginal student from the Greater Victoria School District.
2. Graduating Grade 12 student.
3. Good scholastic standing, citizenship, leadership and cultural involvement.
4. For Arts Scholarship (as well as the criteria above): Involvement in the Arts, e.g. visual arts, music, dance, theatre, writing, Aboriginal culture.

DEADLINE: Friday, May 10, 2019

PROCEDURE:

1. Obtain an application from the Aboriginal Nations Education Office or Aboriginal Nations District School Counselor.
2. Include with the completed application:
 - a) transcript of marks for current school year.
 - b) two letters of reference: one from a school administrator/ Counselor, the other letter a personal reference.
 - c) a typed personal letter addressed to the Hemasaka Aboriginal Nations Scholarship Committee explaining why you feel you qualify as a candidate for the scholarship (and the role you will play in enhancing the image of Aboriginal people in contemporary society).
3. Forward application and supporting documents to the Aboriginal Nations Education Office or School-based Counselor.
