Bold Eagle

Are you up to the challenge?

Bold Eagle

is a partnership between the Department of National Defence, First Nations, and Aboriginal organizations from Western Canada.

From its origin in Saskatchewan it has expanded to allow participation by Aboriginal youth from all four Western provinces and Northwestern Ontario.

The inclusion of Aboriginal cultural activities is a key component to the success of Bold Eagle.

Candidates have the opportunity to visit friends and family during attendance at a Powwow.

SELF CONFIDENCE

Are you up to the challenge?

PHYSICAL FITNESS

Bold Eagle

consists of two parts:

A four day Culture Camp followed by a military recruit training course.

THE CULTURE CAMP

The culture camp is conducted by Elders of different First Nations and Aboriginal groups, and focuses on common spiritual beliefs. The Camp is designed to be beneficial to youth from all backgrounds, and ease the transition from civilian to military lifestyles

MILITARY RECRUIT TRAINING

Recruits are enrolled in the Canadian Forces at the start of their training. The course is the standard Army Reserve Basic Military Qualification. It is taught by military personnel.

Subjects include General Military Knowledge, Weapons handling, Navigation, First Aid, Drill, and Survival skills. The importance of teamwork is stressed throughout.

Successful graduates of the Bold Eagle course are encouraged to remain active in the Canadian military, but there is no obligation to do so.

Bold Eagle's Goals

Bold Eagle develops:

TEAMWORK SKILLS

SELF DISCIPLINE
