

Registration is now open for the FNESC 24th Annual Aboriginal Education Conference, an event that draws over 800 educators each year. The conference welcomes all those who are passionate about advancing quality First Nations education.

Our conference theme, Implementing UNDRIP, will explore Indigenous education in the context of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, including the right of Indigenous peoples to establish and control their own educational systems, the right of Indigenous adults and children to all levels and forms of education without discrimination, and the right to an education in their Indigenous culture and language.

Date: Opening Evening: November 22, 2018, Main Conference: November 23-24, 2018

Location: The Westin Bayshore Hotel, 1601 Bayshore Drive, Vancouver, BC

Rates (includes GST): Regular $475, Elders (60+) $360, Students $360, One Day $300. Breakfasts and lunches are provided. Register early to avoid disappointment!

Accommodation: The Westin Bayshore, 1601 Bayshore Drive, Vancouver. Rooms from $134+tx.

There are some changes to the registration process this year, including a two stage registration process of registering now and selecting workshops in October 2018. Learn more on the website.

We also invite you to apply to present a workshop. Apply by September 14th.
